UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

-----X

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

PLEA AGREEMENT

- against -

19 CR 306 (S-1) (WFK)

HUGO HERNANDEZ-VELAZQUEZ,

Defendant.

-----X

Pursuant to Rule 11 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, the United States Attorney's Office for the Eastern District of New York (the "Office") and HUGO HERNANDEZ-VELAZQUEZ (the "defendant") agree to the following:

1. The defendant will plead guilty to Count Ten of the above-captioned superseding indictment (the "Indictment"), charging a violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1591(a). This count carries the following statutory penalties:

- a. Maximum term of imprisonment: life (18 U.S.C. § 1591(b)(1)).
- b. Minimum term of imprisonment: 15 years (18 U.S.C. § 1591(b)(1)).
- c. Minimum supervised release term: 5 years, maximum supervised release term: life, to follow any term of imprisonment; if a condition of release is violated, the defendant may be sentenced to up to life without credit for pre-release imprisonment or time previously served on post-release supervision; if the defendant commits any criminal offense under Chapter 109A, 110, or 117, or Title 18, United States Code, Sections 1201 or 1591, for which imprisonment for a term longer than 1 year can be imposed, the defendant shall be sentenced to not less than 5 years and up to the maximum term of imprisonment for the offense, as set forth above in paragraph 1(a)

(18 U.S.C. §§ 3583(b), (e) and (k)).

- d. Maximum fine: greater of $250,000, or twice the gross gain or twice the gross loss (18 U.S.C. § 3571(b)(2), (b)(3) and (d)).
- e. Restitution: Mandatory in the full amount of each victim's losses as determined by the Court¹ (18 U.S.C. §§ 1593, 3663A and 3664).
- f. $100 special assessment
(18 U.S.C. § 3013).
- g. Other penalties: removal, as set forth below in paragraph 8; sex offender registration pursuant to the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act, 42 U.S.C.A. § 16901 et seq., as set forth below in paragraph 10; criminal forfeiture, as set forth below in paragraphs 6 to 7.

2. The defendant understands that although imposition of a sentence in accordance with the United States Sentencing Guidelines (the "Guidelines" and "U.S.S.G.") is not mandatory, the Guidelines are advisory and the Court is required to consider any applicable Guidelines provisions as well as other factors enumerated in 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a) to arrive at an appropriate sentence in this case. The Office will advise the Court and the Probation Department of information relevant to sentencing, including criminal activity engaged in by the defendant, and such information may be used by the Court in determining the defendant's sentence. See 18 U.S.C. § 3661 ("No limitation shall be placed on the information concerning the background, character, and conduct of a person convicted of an offense which a court of the United States may receive and consider for the purpose of imposing an appropriate sentence."). The Office estimates the likely adjusted offense level under the Guidelines to be 38, which is predicated on the following Guidelines calculation:

Sex Trafficking Jane Doe #5 (Count 10)

Base Offense Level (§§ 2G1.1(c), 2A3.1(a)(2))	30
Plus: Offense Involved Conduct Proscribed in §§ 2241(a) & (b) (§ 2A3.1(b)(1))	+4
Plus: Serious Bodily Injury (§ 2A3.1(b)(4)(b))	+2
Plus: Vulnerable Victim (§ 3A1.1(b)(1))	+2
Adjusted Offense Level	38

As set forth in paragraph 9, a one-level reduction for a global resolution is applicable if the conditions set forth in paragraph 9 are satisfied, resulting in an offense level of 37.

If the defendant clearly demonstrates acceptance of responsibility, through allocution and subsequent conduct prior to the imposition of sentence, a two-level reduction will be warranted, pursuant to U.S.S.G. § 3E1.1(a), resulting in an adjusted offense level of 35 and a range of imprisonment of 168-210 months, assuming that the defendant falls within Criminal History Category I. However, because the statutory minimum sentence is 180 months, the effective guidelines range is 180-210 months. Furthermore, if the defendant has accepted responsibility as described above, to the satisfaction of the Office, and if the defendant pleads guilty on or before April 27, 2023 an additional one-level reduction will be warranted, pursuant to U.S.S.G. § 3E1.1(b), resulting in an adjusted offense level of 34. This level carries a range of imprisonment of 151-188 months, assuming that the defendant falls within Criminal History Category I. However, because the statutory minimum sentence is 180 months, the effective guidelines range is 180-188 months. The defendant stipulates to the above Guidelines calculation.

3. The Guidelines estimate set forth in paragraph 2 is not binding on the Office, the Probation Department or the Court. If the Guidelines offense level advocated by the Office, or determined by the Probation Department or the Court, is, for any reason, including an error in the estimate, different from the estimate, the defendant will not be entitled to withdraw the plea and the government will not be deemed to have breached this agreement.

4. The defendant agrees not to file an appeal or otherwise challenge, by petition pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2255 or any other provision, the conviction or sentence in the event that the Court imposes a term of imprisonment of 210 months or below. This waiver is binding without regard to the sentencing analysis used by the Court. The defendant waives all defenses based on the statute of limitations and venue with respect to any prosecution that is not time-barred on the date that this agreement is signed in the event that (a) the defendant's conviction is later vacated for any reason, (b) the defendant violates this agreement, or (c) the defendant's plea is later withdrawn. The defendant further waives the right to raise on appeal or on collateral review any argument that (a) the statutes to which the defendant is pleading guilty are unconstitutional and (b) the admitted conduct does not fall within the scope of the statutes. Nothing in the foregoing waiver of appellate and collateral review rights shall preclude the defendant from raising a claim of ineffective assistance of counsel in an appropriate forum. The defendant waives any right to additional disclosure from the government in connection with the guilty plea. The defendant agrees that with respect to all charges referred to in paragraphs 1 and 5(a) he is not a “prevailing party” within the meaning of the “Hyde Amendment,” 18 U.S.C. § 3006A note, and will not file any claim under that law. The defendant agrees to pay the special assessment by check payable to the Clerk of the Court at or before sentencing. The defendant understands that he may be subject to removal as set forth in paragraph 8 below. Nevertheless, the defendant affirms that he wants to plead guilty and to waive his right to appeal as set forth at the beginning of this paragraph, even if the consequence is the defendant’s automatic removal from the United States.

5. The Office agrees that:

- a. no further criminal charges will be brought against the defendant for (1) racketeering related to the Hernandez-Velazquez Trafficking Organization in or about and between March 2001 and September 2019; (2) racketeering conspiracy related to the Hernandez-Velazquez Trafficking Organization in or about and between March 2001 and September 2019; (3) sex trafficking conspiracy involving Jane Does #1, #4 and #5 in or about and between March 2001 and September 2019; (4) alien smuggling conspiracy in or about and between March 2001 and September 2019; (5) interstate prostitution conspiracy in or about and between March 2001 and September 2019; (6) sex trafficking, interstate prostitution and alien smuggling of Jane Doe #1 in or about and between March 2001 and November 2008; (7) sex trafficking, interstate prostitution and alien smuggling of Jane Doe #4 in or about and between January 2009 and July 2015; (8) sex trafficking, interstate prostitution and alien smuggling of Jane Doe #5 in or about and between January 2013 and February 2018; (9) money laundering conspiracy in or about and between March 2001 and August 2019; and (10) distribution of proceeds of a prostitution business in or about and between March 2001 and August 2019, it being understood that this agreement does not bar the use of such conduct as a predicate act or as the basis for a sentencing enhancement in a subsequent prosecution including, but not limited to, a prosecution pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §§ 1961 et seq., and at the time of sentence, it will move to dismiss the remaining counts of the Indictment and any underlying indictment with prejudice;

and, based upon information now known to the Office, it will

- b. take no position concerning where within the Guidelines range determined by the Court the sentence should fall; and
- c. make no motion for an upward departure under the Sentencing Guidelines.

If information relevant to sentencing, as determined by the Office, becomes known to the Office after the date of this agreement, the Office will not be bound by paragraphs 5(b) and 5(c). Should it be judged by the Office that the defendant has violated any provision of this agreement, the defendant will not be released from his plea of guilty but this Office will be released from its obligations under this agreement, including but not limited to: (a) moving for the additional one-level downward adjustment for timely acceptance of responsibility described in paragraph 2 above; and (b) the provisions of paragraphs 5(a)-(c).

6. The defendant acknowledges that he obtained and/or acquired property that is subject to forfeiture as a result of his violations of 18 U.S.C. §§ 1591 and 1962, as alleged in the above-captioned indictment. However, the defendant states that there are no monies and/or properties owned by him or in which he may have an interest that are subject to forfeiture in this case.

7. The defendant represents that he will disclose all of his assets to the United States on the financial statement entitled "United States Department of Justice Financial Statement” (hereinafter, the “Financial Statement”) within 30 days of entering a guilty plea and will provide a copy to Assistant United States Attorney Erin Reid. The defendant agrees that a failure to disclose all assets on the Financial Statement and to inform the government in writing of any material changes up until the time of sentencing constitutes a material breach of this agreement. Upon such a breach, the defendant will not be entitled to withdraw the plea, but the Office may bring additional criminal charges against the defendant. Should undisclosed assets which the defendant owns or in which the defendant has an interest be discovered, the defendant knowingly and voluntarily waives her right to any required notice concerning the forfeiture of said assets and agrees that said assets shall be forfeited to the United States pursuant to (a) 18 U.S.C. §§ 1963(a) and 1963(m), as: (i) any interest the person acquired or maintained; (ii) any interest in, security of, claim against, or property or contractual right of any kind affording a source of influence over any enterprise which the person has established, operate, controlled, conducted or participated in the conduct of; (iii) any property constitution, or derived from, any proceeds which the person obtained, directly and indirectly, from racketeering activity in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1962; and/or (iv) as a substitute asset; and (b) pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 1594(d) and 21 U.S.C. § 853(p) as: (i) any property, real or personal, that was involved in, used or intended to be used to commit or to facilitate the commission of violations of 18 U.S.C. § 1591; and (ii) any property, real or personal, constituting, or derived from, proceeds obtained directly or indirectly as a result of such offences, or any property traceable to such property; and/or (iii) as a substitute asset. The defendant agrees that the forfeiture of said assets is not to be considered payment of a fine, penalty, restitution loss amount, or any income taxes that may be due, and shall survive bankruptcy.

8. The defendant recognizes that pleading guilty may have consequences with respect to the defendant's immigration status if the defendant is not a citizen of the United States. Under federal law, a broad range of crimes are removable offenses, including the offenses to which the defendant is pleading guilty. Indeed, because the defendant is pleading guilty to racketeering involving sex trafficking, removal is presumptively mandatory. Removal and other immigration consequences are the subject of a separate proceeding, however, and the defendant understands that no one, including the defendant's attorney or the District Court, can predict with certainty the effect of the defendant's conviction on the defendant's immigration status. The defendant nevertheless affirms that the defendant wants to plead guilty regardless of any immigration consequences that the defendant's plea may entail, even if the consequence is the defendant's automatic removal from the United States.

9. If the defendants listed below (the "covered defendants") (a) enter guilty pleas, pursuant to plea offers authorized by the government, on or before May 4, 2023, and (b) those pleas are accepted by a United States District Court Judge at the time of the plea allocution, the government agrees to move for an additional one-level reduction of the defendant's adjusted offense level, pursuant to U.S.S.G. § 5K2.0. The covered defendants are: Hugo Hernandez-Velazquez, Ernesto Hernandez-Velazquez and Arcelia Hernandez-Velazquez. If fewer than all of the covered defendants satisfy conditions (a) and (b), or if any of the covered defendants subsequently seeks to withdraw his or her guilty plea, the Office, in its sole discretion, may elect to void any or all of the covered defendants' plea agreements and proceed to trial. The Office may also elect not to recommend a reduction under the Guidelines for a global disposition. No covered defendant will have the right to withdraw his or her guilty plea in any of those circumstances.

10. This agreement does not bind any federal, state, or local prosecuting authority other than the Office, and does not prohibit the Office from initiating or prosecuting any civil or administrative proceedings directly or indirectly involving the defendant.

11. The defendant has been advised, and understands, that under the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act, a federal law, the defendant must register and keep the registration current in each of the following jurisdictions: where he resides; where he is employed; and where he is a student. The defendant understands that the requirements for registration include providing his name, residence address, and the names and addresses of any places where he is or will be an employee or a student, among other information. The defendant further understands that the requirement to keep the registration current includes informing at least one jurisdiction in which he resides, is an employee, or is a student not later than three business days after any change of name, residence, employment, or student status. The defendant has been advised, and understands, that failure to comply with these obligations subjects him to prosecution for failure to register under federal law, 18 U.S.C. § 2250, which is punishable by a fine or imprisonment, or both.

12. Apart from any written proffer agreements, if applicable, no promises, agreements or conditions have been entered into by the parties other than those set forth in this agreement and none will be entered into unless memorialized in writing and signed by all parties. Apart from any written proffer agreements, if applicable, this agreement supersedes all prior promises, agreements or conditions between the parties. To become effective, this agreement must be signed by all signatories listed below.
